New employee

Zurich, 2. June 2009: Anna Blechschmidt has been a member of the Helvetica Property Investors AG team since June 2009. She supports us in the areas of property management, portfolio management and acquisition and, as an assistant to the Executive Board, is also responsible for a wide range of organisational tasks. We extend a warm welcome to Anna Blechschmidt.

After completing high school and a university degree in real estate and building management, Anna Blechschmidt worked for M+W Zander (Switzerland) AG. She then studied abroad at the University of Scotland and worked for several years at Serimo Immobiliendienste AG and EPM Swiss Property Management AG. Anna Blechschmidt has extensive theoretical real estate knowledge and a wide range of practical experience in managing residential and commercial properties.
